

Fees and Expenses

The schedule of fees which follows is comprehensive and is expected to prevail during the 1999-2000 academic year, but the Board of Trustees and the Board of Governors for Higher Education reserve the right, at any time, to authorize changes.* Information on the fees applicable to Extension courses and the Bachelor of General Studies degree program is not included but may be found in the bulletins of the Division of Extended and Continuing Education.

Application Fee

A fee of $40 must accompany the application for admission to any undergraduate school or college of the University for full-time study. The application fee is not refundable and may not be applied to other charges.

Acceptance Fee

A freshman student entering the University in the fall semester must make a nonrefundable payment of $150 by May 1. This payment will apply toward the University fee bill. Failure to remit payment will result in cancellation of admission. The new freshman student is encouraged to make payment as soon as the student's intention to accept admission is firm.

A transfer or readmitted student entering the University in the fall semester, and a freshman, transfer or readmitted student entering in the spring semester must make a nonrefundable payment of $150 within fifteen days of receiving notice of admission. This payment will apply toward the University fee bill. Failure to remit payment by the prescribed date will result in cancellation of admission.

Room Deposit

A room deposit of $140 is required prior to April 1 for any continuing resident student at Storrs. Students at the University regional campuses who transfer to Storrs must pay a $140 deposit when filing a room application. Payment (or deferment) of the deposit secures this contract and presumes acceptance of same. Failure to remit this payment by the due date will result in loss of housing.

New students are not required to pay a separate room deposit. Payment of the Acceptance Fee when due will secure this contract.

The act of paying (or obtaining deferment of) the deposit incurs liability for at least $60 of the Room Fee. The $60 payment is due regardless of subsequent cancellation or failure to remit by due date.

$80 of the room deposit will be refunded if written cancellation is received prior to August 1 (or January 1 for a new spring semester assignment). The entire $140 becomes nonrefundable from those dates forward.

General University Fee

Students on the Storrs campus pay a general University fee of $466 each semester. Students at the regional campuses pay a general University fee each semester of $29 at Avery Point, Hartford, Waterbury and Stamford; students at Torrington pay a general University fee of $18 each semester. Payment of fees is made at each campus location.

The general University fee is prorated for part-time Storrs undergraduate students who initially register for less than full time.

Continuous Registration Fee

A nonrefundable fee of $45 per semester will be charged to Bachelor of General Studies students, Cooperative Education students, and Study Abroad students.

Tuition

All students are subject to a tuition charge in addition to the other fees charged Connecticut and out-of-State students. Students classified as full-time Connecticut students pay tuition of $2,141 per semester. Students classified as full-time out-of-State students pay tuition of $6,528 per semester. Full-time students eligible for the New England Regional Student Program pay tuition of $3,212 per semester.

If any person who receives a tuition waiver in accordance with the provisions of this subsection also receives educational reimbursement from any employer, the waiver shall be reduced by the amount of the educational reimbursement; (5) provides that any dependent child of a police officer or fire fighter killed in the line of duty is eligible for a tuition waiver at the University of Connecticut, the Connecticut State University system or a Regional Community-Technical College.

sity residence hall is $1,447 per semester. It covers occupancy while classes are in session, excluding recess periods.

Board Fee

All students living in undergraduate residences are required to pay for and take their meals under the board plan in effect for that residence. The board fee for the meal plan is $1,400 per semester. The meal plans provide three meals per day seven days per week while classes are in session. A prepaid meal plan is not transferable from one individual to another except as designated by the University.

No refunds for individual meals can be made except when a person misses 15 or more consecutive meals because of personal illness off campus or a College-sponsored field trip. In these instances, refunds may be made based on the raw food cost. (Special arrangements are made for students absent on student teaching or other extended curricular assignments.)

All other students may purchase meals on an a la carte basis at Jonathan's (Student Union Complex) or may elect to purchase a meal plan in a dining hall.

On weekends, meals are available on an a la carte cash basis at Jonathan's and the dining halls which are open.

Infrastructure Maintenance Fee

All students are subject to an infrastructure maintenance fee of $105.00 each semester for the support of operating and maintenance costs related to UConn 2000 projects.

Payment of Fees

Collection of all fees is handled by the Office of the University Bursar. The fall semester fee bill is payable prior to August 1; the spring semester is payable prior to January 2. Partial payment of fees will not be accepted. Failure to make payment on time will result in cancellation of the privileges accorded a student, including registration and residence hall assignment. Registration is not complete nor is the residence hall assignment confirmed in any semester until all the fees for the semester have been paid.

Any student who has contracted for a room assignment for the fall or the spring semester and gives notice of cancellation to the Department of Residential Life prior to August 1 and January 1 respectively, is responsible for payment of $60 of the residence hall fee.

It is each student's responsibility to make fee payments by the specified due dates. Failure to receive a fee bill does not relieve a student of fee payment responsibility.

There is a $15 charge on any check which is returned by the bank for any reason.

Late Payment Fee

The payment of the fee bill is due in full prior to August 1 (fall semester) and January 2 (spring semester). A late payment fee of $50 is payable by all undergraduate students whose tuition and fees are not paid in full on the published due date. Checks returned by the bank for any reason are considered late payment.

Cancellations and Refunds

The University grants a full refund of advanced fees to any student academically dismissed. In certain other instances, including illness, adjustments to the following schedule of refunds can be made at the discretion of the Dean of Students.

All Storrs campus undergraduate students who withdraw from the University for any reason must secure from the Dean of Students' Office written acknowledgement of their withdrawal, and arrange with that department the details of their leaving. No refunds are made unless this procedure is followed. See the section on Withdrawal and Cancellation, and Leave of Absence for further comment.
